This diagram illustrates a book cover design featuring hidden flaps. The top portion shows the front and back covers with grey faces and white spine areas. The front cover has a hatched pattern at the top. A dashed line indicates the fold for the hidden flap on the front cover. The spine area also has a dashed line for its fold. The bottom part shows the book laid flat, revealing the hidden flap tucked under the back cover. The word "Inhaltsstoffe / Contents" is centered in the gutter area.
